

The ruling on media ownership should not be promulgated without hearings in the Congress, as requested by our representatives. As Commisioner Cobbs has indicated, the ruling will have a major impact on communication issues, which in turn affects our right to freedom of speech. The FCC should understaand that they sserve the People and not influential business buddies.